Who Makes Much of a Miracle (Burning Bushes Included)?

Let me begin by saying that I DO make much of a miracle--"burning bushes" included! I shared with the congregation this past Sunday in my homily three of my personal "burning bush" episodes. "Burning bush" episodes always catch us by surprise, and require an answer or decision. How one question, posed to me by one of my students at the State University of Iowa while on a teaching fellowship, one question resonated again and again with me toward the end of my first year of teaching, and the answer to it led to my studies for the priesthood. And then there was the decision to adopt a child at five weeks old, who had a bleeding issue (mild to moderate hemophilia)--and with my having hemophobia. And I'm happy to say, my son Mark is doing well, with his wife, my beautiful grand-daughter and three step-grand-daughters. I concluded the homily by citing the call from the bishop and Michael Christopher asking me to come as "interim" priest-in-charge of St. George's, just after "settling in" at Church of the Holy Communion as pastoral assistant. After prayer came the answer, "let it be." I have had many "burning bushes" in my life and so have you! Think about it! What are yours?

Recently in our studies in the Gospel of John, we looked at the feeding of the five thousand. A miracle, or "sign", as John calls it. In the Gospel of John we can almost always expect to find layer upon layer of meanings and significance for daily living and using our ministries and gifts. From five loaves of bread and two fish, the multitude is fed, with twelve baskets-full left over. Jesus, after giving thanks over the bread and fish, supplies the hunger of all those gathered. Natural laws are laid aside, and our Lord's divinity is fully revealed. Our faith sees the wonderful care our Lord has for our human needs, such as hunger. Now, what might this "sign" also imply for our lives and ministries in the world?

The response of one little boy who has overheard the conversation between Jesus, Philip, and Andrew regarding the need to feed the huge crowd--one little boy offers what he has, five loaves of barley bread and two fish--which Jesus receives, blesses, and has the disciples distribute to the people. I believe we have a small "layer" here in the willingness of one little boy to share what he has, and in turn, perhaps those who have witnessed this act of sharing, also begin to share what they have, and all are fed. What might this imply in our outreach and willingness to "feed the need"? It means that we share in this ministry every time we serve a meal, donate or give to feed the hungry--we follow the Lord's example. And every time we give thanks or have "grace" before eating, we follow his example.

On a bigger and larger spectrum, what might this say about nations that have the ability to feed the world, so that none hunger--and the willingness to share the bounty without all kinds of "strings attached". We are still a long way from that, but we can begin from where we are and how we share--willingly to those in need in our own community.

Let me conclude with the Motto ("For His Sake") Statement for the Daughters of the King--which speaks to our ministries:

I am but one, but I am one.
 I cannot do everything, but I can do something.
 What I ought to do, I can do.
 What I can do, I will do.
 Lord, what would you have me do?

The answer to that question will resonate in our concrete actions and ministries.

Last Call for Israel!!

This seems to be the year for pilgrimages to Israel, as many are embarking on this life-changing journey! We still have a few spaces left on our pilgrimage - and if you've been thinking about joining this group, now's the time! Please contact Mother Dorothy (Dorothy@stgeorgesgermantown.org) immediately if you would like to make the journey!

Love God, Love Others, Change the World!

Can We Help? Yes We Can! Our Lenten Food Drive Continues!

Thank you, St. George's! Thanks to your continued generous support of our Lenten food drive, as of Thursday, March 3, we have delivered about 875 pounds of food to Collierville Food Pantry - as we make our way to delivering one ton of food during this Lenten season! During this season of Lent, we look for many ways we might be more intentional in our service to God and our neighbors. With three weeks and just over 1,100 pounds to go, we ask that we all make a personal commitment to our Lenten Food Drive. We have many families in local neighborhoods who are hungry and in need of basic supplies. We have a Lenten shopping list (below), organized by week, to help everyone participate and give much-needed items to the Food Pantry. We can't reach our goal without everyone's help in shopping for these items and bringing them to church each week! Please help us Stock the Pantry (Thank you for making certain that your gifts do not include any expired or past-date items.). If you are able to help transport our donations to the Collierville Food Bank on Thursday mornings during Lent, please contact Sarah Bettendorf (901-896-9581). Thank you for your support!

Water for Flint Michigan

The husband of Vera Dantzler, one of the teachers at St. George's Episcopal Preschool, is from Flint, Michigan; his family still lives there. He has committed to transport water to Flint to help during the current water crisis, and the Preschool is supporting this effort by collecting bottles/gallon jugs of water. If you would also like to support this effort, you, too, can bring bottles/gallon jugs of water to church. The water that is collected will be shipped to Flint to help our neighbors in that community.

Cold Nights Continue; Help Us Make Room in the Inn!

Our season of ministry with Room in the Inn continues; we host again March 10 and 24. March still brings cold nights in Memphis and the need for food and shelter is always more than the city churches can provide. Through Room in the Inn, we serve up a hot meal, a warm place to sleep and hospitality to about a dozen persons from our community who are without shelter. This ministry needs a lot of hands. We always need an extra passenger to ride in the van or to drive it, and we especially need men who are willing to serve as overnight shepherds. If you are interested in learning more about this ministry, please contact Mother Dorothy (Dorothy@stgeorgesgermantown.org) or Rick Patterson (rpatter1@comcast.net, or 901-848-5970) for more information.
